COACH SLOAN'S SQUAD HAS FINE SPIRIT

Maurice Binkley and Roland Justice have first call on the wing positions. Binkley has improved considerably over last season and Justice, a transfer from Torrance, is equal to any end in the league.

New Gardena Coach Bill Gibson, all-Marine league end last year, moves to the fullback spot.

Gardena comes to Lomita Friday equipped with a new coach, Clark DeGroot, and a light but scrappy grid outfit.

IN L. A. SERVICE GAME... Private Lloyd W. Hoisch of Los Angeles will be in action with the Fort Ord soldier football team, Armistice Day, Nov. 11, at the Los Angeles coliseum, when the American Legion, Los Angeles County Council, stages the Second Annual Service Football Classic.

Port Ord plays Camp San Luis Obispo for the championship of the service camps. Hoisch won All-Southern California honors at Los Angeles high school and later played with Oregon University before entering service.

What business man would make a famed orchestra leader? Who is the lady who wants to quit business and study play-writing? Which professional person took a job peeling vegetables to get through school? This will be exposed in the next issue or two in "People You Should Know."

Our highlights today are these prominent folks upon whom we are seeking facts for your enlightenment: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schrock, Ida Gorbet, Frank Gasper, John Gorbet, Harry Heinrich, Nellie Foster, Frank Gorbet, Alberta K. Bouldin, Kay Nakahara and Joe Bouldin.

Today's two dollar winner is Maurice Foreman, and Mrs. Ramona Dougherty gets the one dollar award.

Torrance firemen responded to a call to extinguish a blazing oil tank at Walnut and 240th st. but on arrival there found their services were not necessary even if they could have acted—which they couldn't.

The fire was located about 200 feet outside of Torrance city limits. However, the Lomita department had the blaze under control and almost out.

SALVATORE PARTINICO, Monterey fisherman, protesting strike order—"I want to go to work and make some money. These union officials go around dressed like a million dollars. A poor guy can't buy a loaf of bread."

RALPH H. TAYLOR, exec. secy. Agricultural Council of Calif.—"Liberty and national security—the things we love most dearly—are never bought cheaply. It is the inexorable rule of life that important things come hard."

MILTON CANIFF, comic strip artist—"In any continuous cartoon the chief desire is to make the fictional people seem real in the minds of the buyers of the newspaper. Never let the public down."

ANGELICO BISHOP R. O. HALL, on vacation after 10 years at Hongkong—"There should be no appeasement of Japan. I am really confident that Japan is beaten—beaten by China. That is why any Far Eastern Munich which would in any way be worse than the betrayal of Czechoslovakia."

ANGELO ROSSI, S.F. mayor, in speech on Hetch Hetchy power bonds issue—"It is not only laughable, it is funny."

Moroney Named New L.A. County Clerk to Succeed Lampton

John P. Moroney, now a deputy county counsel, will become Los Angeles county clerk, effective Dec. 1, by appointment of the board of supervisors at Tuesday's meeting.

Moroney, who made the highest grade in a recent civil service examination, has been in county service for 13 years. He will succeed L. E. Lampton, who will retire November 30.

Eric Chaplin Now Sergeant-Trumpeter in Camp Roberts Band

Eric Chaplin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Chaplin of 1919 Cota ave., is a sergeant-trumpeter in the Field Artillery band since his arrival at Camp Roberts about three months ago.

Chaplin was inducted into the Army Jan. 20 with the second contingent to leave from the local Selective Service headquarters.

VALIANT IS THE WORD FOR LOIS

There was a terrible day in 1937 for Mrs. Lois Moore of Oakland.

The young, pretty, happy housewife lost both legs when a foot became imprisoned in a pavement hole between the tracks of an interurban train.

The other day a San Francisco reporter, J. Campbell Bruce, wondered about Mrs. Moore and went to her home. She came to the door. Her life? Well, it is a busy one.

She holds down a job as secretary, drives her car to work, and she launders and cooks. Now and then she finds an evening for her favorite recreation — dancing! She has improved in looks, she said.

"My artificial legs are nicer looking than my own were—and I wear a size 5 shoe instead of 8."

There is much frustration and fear today in the lives of millions. Young men are called from jobs to arms, war clouds thicken and parents worry, industries and occupations are thrown out of gear by the emergency.

Yet rarely has anyone been called upon to face a shock such as this California girl faced, surmounted—and laughed at. Valiant is the word for Lois Moore.

The story of her courage is a good story for all to hear in these days when doubt is so rife and high valor so precious a commodity.

DECREASING BIRD LIFE
Bird life is decreasing in London. Certain species, such as rooks and jackdaws, which formerly nested in the heart of Kensington, now cannot find food there.

S. F.'s 'Conscience Fund' $595 Richer As Restitution Made

Somewhere in this land of ours lives an honest man and the Santa Fe Railway is $595 richer for it. This sum was enclosed in a letter received at the railroad's offices in Galveston, Tex., recently by Treasurer W. D. Sawyer.

Attached to the money was an unsigned note which read: "Enclosed find $595 for which I was not due. It was received years ago. As my life has changed I want to clear all things up."

Postmarked at Fort Worth, Tex., the letter is puzzling Santa Fe officials who are speculating as to who could have sent it.

"We often receive sums of money through the mail from persons who wish to make restitution," Sawyer disclosed, "but in my nearly 50 years with the railroad this is the largest amount I have ever received from such sources."

The money, consisting of four 100 dollar bills, three fifties, one twenty, two tens and one five, will be turned over to the Santa Fe's "Conscience fund." Hundreds of dollars have been contributed to this fund over the years by conscience stricken persons all of whom have remained anonymous, Mr. Sawyer said.
